Dear Tom:

I showed the Boss your letter and he was most happy to provide the enclosed autographed photograph for you, recalling you to be a devoted employee who contributed materially to our research here.

I was distressed that I did not have an opportunity to attend the luncheon in your honor, and while over the past year I haven't had as much opportunity to chat with you as previously. I will miss your presence and words of good cheer.

Best of luck, and if there is anything I can do at any time, please call on me.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Dulles:

ON the occasion of my retirement last month you were thoughtful enough to write me a much appreciated letter. If I may impose on your good nature further I would like to request an autographed photograph if you have one. It would make a valued addition to the 'rogues' gallery' on the walls of my den.

I shall continue to take a lively, if not so active, interest in the progress of the agency.

Sincerely
